I. Extract-Based Question (4 x 1 = 4)

Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow:

I Passage: "Rama Natha was a rich man's son. His father left him a large tract of land when he died. But Rama Natha did not do any work. He spent all his time searching for a magic potion that could turn any object into gold. He believed that somewhere in the world, there was a secret trick to getting rich without working. His wife, Madhumati, was worried because all their wealth was slowly running out."

1. What did Rama Natha inherit from his father?
2. How did Rama Natha spend his days instead of farming?
3. Why was his wife, Madhumati, worried?
4. Find a word in the passage that means "a piece of land, especially a large one".

or

II Passage: "Rama Natha looked at the copper vessel, then at the water, and finally at the Sage. 'But Sage Mahipati,' he cried, 'you promised to turn this copper into gold! The copper has not changed at all!" The Sage smiled kindly. He called Madhumati inside. She came in carrying a large wooden box. The Sage opened it, and Rama Natha's eyes widened in surprise. The box was completely filled with glittering gold coins!"

1. Why was Rama Natha upset with Sage Mahipati initially?
2. What did Madhumati bring into the room?
3. What was actually inside the wooden box that shocked Rama Natha?
4. Find a word from the passage that means "to look at something with wide-open eyes, typically in surprise or wonder".

(8 x 1 = 8)

1. Who did Rama Natha visit to get help in finding the magic potion?
 - A) A rich merchant in the city
 - B) A wise sage named Sage Mahipati
 - C) The king of the land
 - D) A clever thief
2. What condition did the Sage set for creating the magic potion?
 - A) Rama Natha had to collect 5 liters of winter dew drops from banana leaves.
 - B) Rama Natha had to pay a thousand gold coins.
 - C) Rama Natha had to travel across five oceans.
 - D) Rama Natha had to dig a deep well in the desert.
3. How many years did it take Rama Natha to collect the required amount of dew?
 - A) One winter season
 - B) Six months
 - C) Six years
 - D) Two years
4. What did Sage Mahipati actually pour onto the copper vessel to show the "magic"?
 - A) The real dew drops collected by Rama Natha
 - B) A secret chemical fluid from the mountains
 - C) Ordinary water mixed with gold dust
 - D) Simple, regular water with no magic potion at all

5. Why did the Sage specify that the banana trees must be planted and grown by Rama Natha himself?
- A) Because the magic wouldn't work on hired laborers' trees.
 - B) To ensure Rama Natha engaged in physical labor and farming.
 - C) Because banana leaves grown by others don't produce dew.
 - D) To test if Rama Natha could remember instructions.
6. How did Rama Natha's reputation in the village change over the six years?
- A) He became known as a lazy dreamer.
 - B) He became known as an expert magician.
 - C) He became known as a hardworking and dedicated plantation owner.
 - D) He became known as a thief.
7. Why did the sage Mahipati tell Rama Natha to plant banana trees and collect morning dew?
- A) Because banana dew is the only ingredient that can physically turn copper into gold.
 - B) He wanted Rama Natha to brew a special herbal medicine for the village.
 - C) He wanted to trick Rama Natha into working hard on his fields so he would realize that labor, not magic, creates wealth.
 - D) The sage wanted to buy the banana plantation from Rama Natha after six years.
8. Who was the ultimate strategist who managed the business aspect of the plantation while Rama Natha gathered dew?
- A) Sage Mahipati
 - B) Madhumati
 - C) Rama Natha's father
 - D) The village headman

III. State True or False

(6 x 1 = 6)

1. Rama Natha planted the banana trees himself and took care of them diligently for years.
2. Madhumati was angry when Rama Natha spent years collecting the dew drops.
3. The real wealth came from the sale of bananas grown on the vast plantation.

4. Sage Mahipati used actual magic spells to help Rama Natha turn copper into gold at the end.
5. The box of gold coins shown by the sage at the end of the story was actually earned by selling the bananas grown on Rama Natha's plantation.
6. Sage Mahipati was an old cheat who wanted to take away all of Rama Natha's property.

IV. Short Answer Questions (20–30 words)

(6 x 2 = 12)

1. Why did Sage Mahipati agree to help Rama Natha when he knew magic potions didn't exist?
2. What regular tasks did Rama Natha have to perform every single morning to collect the dew drops?
3. How did Madhumati help turn the banana plantation into a highly profitable business?
4. Why did it take as long as six years for Rama Natha to gather five liters of dew?
5. How did Rama Natha's perspective on his vast land change from the beginning of the story to the end?
6. What does the "glittering gold coins" inside the box reveal about Madhumati's intelligence?

V. Long Answer Questions (50–80 words)

(2 x 5 = 10)

Answer ANY TWO from the following.

1. Explain the clever trick Sage Mahipati used to teach Rama Natha the value of hard work. How did the "magic potion" turn out to be a lesson?
2. How does the story "A Bottle of Dew" show that wealth created through honest labor is better than searching for shortcuts or miracles?
3. Imagine the conversation between Rama Natha and his wife Madhumati on their walk back home from the Sage's hermitage. Write their discussion about the lesson they learned.
4. Analyze the character of Sage Mahipati. Why is he considered a true teacher or guide rather than a typical magician?
